Dear Mrs. Bashelier:

We wish to congratulate you and the Tuluksak Native Community upon completion of your organization under the Indian Reorganization Act. Enclosed is a small supply of mimeographed copies of your Constitution and By-laws and Corporate Charter which provide the regulations under which your community now operates.

Now that your Corporate Charter is in effect your community is in a position to make plans for using the new privileges and powers gained by incorporation. In our circular No. 382 dated August 8, 1949, pages 3 and 4, are suggestions for your guidance in perfecting and making the most use of your organization.

We shall be pleased to have you keep us advised of your plans since we are anxious to be of as much assistance to your community as possible.
